INTRODUCTION

The Drysdale Collection consists of material assembled by B C Mollison and Coral Everitt and published as a series of Tasmanian Aboriginal genealogies from 1974 to 1978 which was lodged with R J Drysdale in 1985. Additional information and material was compiled thereafter by R J Drysdale.

Rod Drysdale BA (Aboriginal studies and archaeology), Dip. Forensic Science, was secretary/public relations officer of the Tasmanian Aboriginal Genealogical and Historical Association for five years, researcher responsible for maintenance of the Mollison aboriginal genealogies (1) and chairman of the Tasmanian Aboriginal Education Advisory Council c.1988.

The collection was donated to the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery in 1995. Access to the collection is restricted and permission must be obtained from the Director of the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery.
