m i n d s DO matter

This exhibition explores the relationship between art and wellbeing by celebrating art's power to be life-enhancing and life-affirming. This is more than an art exhibition. It is an acknowledgement that mental health and mental illness are a part of the human experience. It impacts upon individuals, families and communities.

Minds Do Matter is an expression of the lived experience of mental illness and a validation of the creativity, courage and resilience of us all. Art can be a powerful tool in the healing and recovery process. It is a process that invites conversations leading to greater understanding, acceptance, reconciliation and the discovery of life, as it is, with all its wonderful possibilities.
